

Biography

Ryan has successfully represented some of the world's largest companies in complex commercial litigation. He has tried cases and argued motions state and federal courts across the country. In addition to his trial court practice, Ryan has practiced in front of numerous courts of appeal, including the Ninth Circuit, the Second Circuit, the D.C. Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court. He has prevailed in arbitrations before several different arbitral organizations, including FINRA. Ryan's practice areas include business litigation, intellectual property, entertainment, antitrust, securities and white-collar crime. He is also frequently asked to provide pre-litigation advice on numerous issues. Based on his experience and success, Ryan has been named a "Super Lawyer" and a "Rising Star" by Los Angeles Magazine. He has also obtained the highest peer review rating on Martindale-Hubble – AV Preeminent.

Ryan has appeared on CNN's Burden of Proof and on NBC Channel 4 News in Los Angeles. He has also been quoted in the Wall Street Journal, Los Angeles Times, National Law Journal, Hollywood Reporter and numerous other publications. Ryan has lectured on various legal issues, including copyright law and electronic discovery. He has been asked to speak at numerous law schools, including Loyola and Harvard. Based on his expertise in alternative dispute resolution, he presented at a conference co-sponsored by the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Commerce - Alternative Dispute Resolution for Consumer Transactions in the Borderless Online Marketplace.

Ryan is a member of California's Central District's pro bono panel. He also currently serves on the Board of Advisors of After-

Ryan G. Baker

rbaker@bakermarquart.com
777 S. Figueroa Street
Suite 2850
Los Angeles, California 90017
424.652.7801 direct
424.652.7850 fax
310.770.1646 cell

School All-Stars, a non-profit organization providing after-school educational enrichment activities for children. Ryan served as a “big” for three years with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles. He recently earned, for the third time, the coveted Leadville 100 Mountain Bike Race belt buckle. He has already qualified for the 2017 Leadville 100.

Ryan received his law degree from Harvard Law School in 2000, where he was a member of the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau. In 1997, he earned his bachelor’s degree in political science from Brigham Young University, graduating magna cum laude with University Honors.

Representative Engagements

- Argued, and won, reversal of a Florida cyberstalking injunction in the Florida District Court of Appeals. The Florida appellate court agreed that the injunction was an improper prior restraint of First Amendment free speech and that no cyberstalking had been established, because the only direct communications at issue served a proper purpose. The Appellate Court directed dismissal of the case in its entirety.
- Obtained “landmark” copyright ruling,” in which the Central District of California court found, for the first time, that an Internet retransmitter of television programming could be entitled to a compulsory copyright license under Section 111 of the Copyright Act.
- Obtained favorable settlement on behalf of client in patent infringement case against Cirque de Soleil related to Michael Jackson One show.

- Argued, and won, Ninth Circuit appeal against insurance companies on behalf of Mattel in the Barbie-Bratz litigation.
- Successfully defended multimillion dollar arbitration brought by international investment bank against client; after five days of arbitration, client prevailed on all claims and recovered attorneys' fees and costs.
- Prevailed in two separate but related California appeals to protect client's right to jury trial.
- Obtained a favorable settlement for The Carlyle Group in a dispute against the defendant seller of a building that contained asbestos.
- Defended manufacturer of revolutionary lightweight sport aircraft against engineering company. Obtained a walk-away settlement following the articulation of potential cross-claims.
- Secured dismissal of claims brought by a landlord against a popular Los Angeles nightclub.
- Pursued breach of contract claims on behalf of client DIRECTV against a former dealer. Prevailed in arbitration, obtaining an award of all damages sought, in addition to attorneys' fees.
- Represented a major retailer and independent studio in a dispute related to the motion picture Monster. After a week of jury trial in Texas state court, obtained a favorable settlement.
- Filed action for breach of a loan agreement on behalf of his client, a real estate developer, in Maine federal court. Obtained summary judgment on all claims; also obtained sanctions against the defendants based on defendants' discovery misconduct.
- Represented a software company seeking to prevent competitor from infringement. Obtained an unprecedented preliminary injunction for client, which enabled that client to protect its intellectual property while pursuing claims against a competitor.

- Represented a major grocery store chain against discrimination claims brought by a former employee in a week-long jury trial. Client settled on favorable terms while appeal was pending.
- Defended Rolls-Royce in a dispute related to the construction of an oil platform. Obtained summary judgment of all claims.
- Obtained summary judgment in landmark copyright case, holding that an Internet-based broadcast television transmitter may be entitled to a compulsory license under Copyright Act Section 111.

Representative Clients

Avery Dennison Corporation

Bank of the West

The Carlyle Group

DIRECTV

FilmOn Networks

Funtastic Limited (Australia)

ICON Aircraft

Mattel

Motorola

Muse Lifestyle Group

Rolls-Royce Energy Systems

Sumifru Corporation (Philippines)

THUMS Long Beach

University of Southern California

Zions Bankcorporation

Admissions

U.S. Supreme Court

D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals

Second Circuit Court of Appeals

Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals

Central District of California

Northern District of California

Southern District of California

Other Professional Activities

American Bar Association, Litigation Section

Los Angeles County Bar Association